From the principal

Happy Friday, Falcon Families!

I have been observing teachers all week this week and have been blown away AGAIN with the palpable sense of love, care and warmth that these beautiful teachers give to our children every day. Our teachers TRULY love our children. And it is obvious in every interaction, every smile, and in the way our teachers' faces light up with every student success, no matter how large or small. As a principal I am extremely proud. As a mother, I am humbled and grateful with how much these teachers love my children. God bless these wonderful teachers! READ MORE ABOUT TEACHERS UPDATES
